Additional Comments

Please explain any limitations you have to Fostering and/or Transporting a Newf:

Foster Agreement

I am willing to accept the financial responsibilities* and other burdens and responsibilities associated with fostering a rescued Newfoundland dog. I release any and all liability and hold HCNR harmless for any damages to my property or myself associated with fostering. I understand I need to contact my homeowners insurance to confirm insurance coverage associated with fostering. I also understand that a home inspection is mandatory before final approval to foster will be granted.

Some expenses may be reimbursed by HCNR after authorization.

Transport Liability Release

Volunteers for HCNR and others working for and/or associated with the Rescue shall not hold HCNR responsible for any damage or injury caused by a Newfoundland fostered and/or transported through HCNR. This includes, but is not limited to, dog bites to persons or animals, or property damage. Transport volunteers hold HCNR harmless and release any and all liability while volunteering to transport a Newfoundland dog for HCNR.

Being a volunteer with HCNR is at will and there are no implied payment or reimbursement for damages or costs associated with service as a volunteer.
